FCC REAFFIRMS DECISION TO RESERVE SPECTRUM TO PROMOTE COMPETITION IN 2016 INCENTIVE AUCTION. The Federal Communications Commission reaffirmed its decision to establish a market-based spectrum reserve of up to 30 megahertz of spectrum in next year's incentive auction in order to promote competition in the wireless marketplace. Non-nationwide providers as well as nationwide providers who currently hold less than one-third of available high-quality low-band spectrum in a given license area will be eligible to utilize this first-of-its-kind reserve. News Release. (Dkt No 12-269).
